Ms. Arundhati Bhattacharya, Chairman, State Bank of India along with Mr. Arun Jain, Chairman of CII & CMD, Intellect Design Arena Ltd, graced this occasion with their inaugural key note address post which the CII- PwC report on 'FinTech: Redefining banking for customers' was launched.

To add to this, Mr. Mani Mamallan, Founder, EPS co-chaired the Thought Leadership Roundtable Session "Embracing the Fintech Disruption in Banking" with other key delegates across industries. The topic mainly spoke about the banking sector and its evolution in terms of disruption, and how it will start seeing the roll-out of differentiated banking models like payment banks and small finance banks along with emergence of new players (Fintech Firms) equipped with innovative offerings; while incumbent banks try to catch up with changing financial technology trends to stay relevant. Technology is enabling banks to create new segments, provide tailor made products and service offerings in a cost effective manner and thus differentiating themselves. Traditional banks are now looking for ways to bring innovations at the center of their business strategies.
